

Jamestown Place
Self-Sufficiency Program
Opening doors of opportunity... one at a time!

Serving this 150-unit apartment community located just off Bennington Street SE, Roanoke, VA, the ROSS grant Self Sufficiency program will provide the tools residents need on their way to economic "self-sufficiency". This effort will be achieved through numerous activities and programs including

- Job training
- Homeownership counseling
- Expanded educational opportunities
- Access to Internet and computer technology
- Youth services
- Adult education
- Homework assistance
- Disabled and elderly services

Working with a host of service providers whose program activities are tailored to the needs of eligible residents and coordinating these services with Jamestown residents are our commitments for resident success.
